The Council shall make all policy decisions involving more than one constituent body of the Council.

IV-A-2

- i) The Council shall consider and ratify the Constitutions of its constituent bodies and any subsequent amendment by a 2/3rd majority of the "Effective Strength" which means the strength of the entire Council, less the staff members who are present but voluntarily abstain from voting. If no ratification is accorded, the matter will be sent back to the constituent bodies for reconsideration in the light of comments of the Council. Rejection by the Council after resubmission will automatically invalidate the amendment of the portion of the Constitution under consideration.
- ii) The Council shall have the authority to institute and recognize a new Board or/and Committee or to reorganize an existing one. This shall require a 2/3rd majority vote from among the Council members present at the Council meeting.

IV-A-3

- i) The Council shall consider and approve the distribution of student funds, in the form of annual budgetary allocation to various constituent bodies, etc., for each academic year. This shall be provisionally done by the Executive Committee before the end of the previous academic year. These allocations must be considered, if deemed necessary, altered, and approved within twenty-one days of the commencement of the new session.
- i) Whenever deemed necessary, the Council may audit the accounts of any or all of its constituent bodies.

IV-A-4

The Council shall, ordinarily, refrain from interfering with the affairs of its constituent bodies. However, if it is felt by the Council that some policy or decision of a particular organization is detrimental to the interests of the student community as a whole, the Council may ask the organization to reconsider these policies/decisions in the light of the comments of the Council. Such policies/decisions should only be implemented on ratification by the Council. The Council may also consider matters concerning individual Boards directly on reference by any student/faculty. However, such matters must first be referred to the individual Board concerned and should be considered by the Council along with the views or the Board concerned. However, if the concerned Board does not send up its views to the Council within a period of a week of being notified or by the time the Council meets, whichever is later, the Council may consider the matter without its views.

IV-A-5

The Council shall represent the student community whenever and wherever deemed necessary.

V-A-2

- i) The meetings of the Council shall be convened by the General Secretary, Student Affairs, in consultation with the Chairman/Vice-Chairman of the
- ii) Council. In the event that some emergent work arises after the announcement of a regular meeting by the General Secretary, Student Affairs, the Chairman/Vice-Chairman may ask the General Secretary, Student Affairs to postpone the meeting if they consider it absolutely essential. The postponed meeting shall take place within 3 working days of the originally scheduled date of the meeting.
- iii) The Vice-Chairman may convene regular meetings of the Council in the event the General Secretary, Student Affairs is absent from the Institute for a period of thirty days.

- iv) The Chairman/Vice-Chairman may also convene an emergency meeting of the Council under intimation to the General Secretary, Student Affairs of their intention to call such a meeting.

V-A-3

A meeting of the Council may be requisitioned in writing by its members, not less in number than one-fourth the total Council membership. Notice for such a meeting shall be given by the General Secretary, Student Affairs, within a period of five Institute days (an Institute day being a day on which the Institute is officially open to the students) of his receiving the requisition; and the meeting shall be held within ten Institute days of the issue of the notice, provided no regular meeting is scheduled within that period. The items for which the meeting is requisitioned must necessarily be taken up first in this requisitioned/regularly scheduled meeting (whichever is earlier) before any other items are taken up.

V-A-4

A written notice shall be circulated among the members at least one week before the meeting and the agenda at least 48 hours in advance. In the case of an emergent meeting this rule may not be observed in that a simple notice of its venue and time shall suffice.

V-A-5

The quorum for a meeting shall be half the total membership.

V-A-6

- i) In the absence of the Director, the Dean of Student Affairs shall chair the meeting and assume all the powers of the Chairman for that meeting. In case the Dean of Students is absent as well, the Associate Dean of Students (Hostel Management) shall chair the meeting. In the event that Associate Dean of Students (Hostel Management) is not present to chair the meeting, any faculty member on the Council who is present may be requested by the General Secretary to chair the meeting, and he/she shall do so. If no faculty member is present and the General Secretary is satisfied that the absence is coincidental, then the General Secretary, Student Affairs, shall chair the already convened a meeting of the Council.
- ii) In the absence of the General Secretary, Student Affairs, the Chairman shall nominate one of the other General Secretaries present to officiate as Secretary for the meeting.

V-A-7

- i) The Council should attempt to take decisions by consensus. A simple majority of the effective Council strength present shall, however, suffice for a motion to be carried except where indicated otherwise.

- ii) A secret ballot may be held on any issue if requested by a member or at the discretion of the Chairman.
- iii) No member shall have more than one vote even if he/she is on the Council in more than one capacity.

V-A-8

Any item which has not been circulated in advance amongst the members as per Article V-A-4 may be included in the agenda with the permission of the Chairman, if a provision is made for such inclusions in the circulated agenda. Such a provision should always be made in the case of regular meetings. Agenda for a Council meeting shall be prepared by the General Secretary in consultation with the Chairman/Vice-Chairman of the council.

V-A-9

The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the Council and its Executive and Coordinating Committees shall be prepared by the General Secretary. After the minutes are confirmed in the next meeting, they shall be recorded in two minute books (in duplicate) under signatures of the General Secretary and the Chairman. The Dean of Students shall ensure safe custody of these minute books of the Council.

V-A-10

Minutes of the meetings of the Council after being approved shall be placed before the Senate for its information. Points requiring approval of the Senate shall be sent separately so that they can be highlighted in the agenda of the Senate for its consideration.

V-A-11

- i) If a member fails to attend two meetings of the Council (including those which could not be convened for lack of quorum), he/she shall cease to be a member of the Council , with the provision that the Chairman of the Council may in extraordinary circumstances grant a reprieve to the absentee member on the advice of its Executive Committee. This applies to all members of the Council other than those present in an ex officio capacity.
- ii) The vacancy resulting from the application of the above sub-clause will be filled within 15 Institute days by the same procedure according to which the original incumbent was selected. The absentee member will, however, not be eligible for membership again during the session he/she was removed for continued absenteeism.

V-A-12

- (i) The Chairman, and the General Secretary, in consultation with the Chairman, may invite non-members to a meeting of the Council. These invitees shall not have any voting rights
- (ii) Wardens, who are not already members of the Council under the provisions of Article II-A-I, would be permanent invitees to all the meetings of the Council.
- (iii) House Secretaries of all Hostels other than the married students' hostel, one NSS GSec, one NSO in-charge, one NCC in-charge, one Training & Placement Cell overall coordinator & one Mentorship Review Committee coordinator shall be permanent invitees to all the meetings of the Council.

V-A-13

In the event a meeting tends to prolong beyond a reasonable length of time, as per the discretion of the Chairman, it may be adjourned and reconvened within a week of the adjournment in order to complete the remainder of the items on the agenda. Such a provision would be valid only for a regular meeting of the Council.

V-A-14

Accepted parliamentary conduct and discipline shall govern all meetings of the Council and its committees.

CHAPTER VI Responsibilities vis-à-vis the Council
